Pets & Restricted Dog Breeds

- You must advise your HSCO if you have any pets during your interview.
- Tuath has a pet policy and you must apply for permission in order to be approved to have a pet such as a cat or dog in your home. Please speak to your HSCO about our pet policy and a pet application form.
- It is a breach of your tenancy to have any of the following breeds of dogs in your home, or crossbreeds/ bandog.
- If you have a dog of any of the following breeds or cross-breeds you can not sign the tenancy agreement until the dog has been rehomed.

This is a reminder to all residents of the Tuath pets policy and restricted dog breeds

The welfare of all tenants, neighbours and the wider community is of the utmost importance. We encourage all tenants to report any dogs of concern that may be residing within a Tuath home to Tuath Staff, An Gardaí or local authority dog warden services.

The Tuath Tenant Handbook specifically states 'Never keeping dogs classified as dangerous breeds'. Please find in the article below a list of dogs that are considered dangerous breeds.
